

Website Availability Report

This report is available by clicking on the Availability tab from the Websites menu on ServerGenius web interface.

The Website Availability Report displays the uptime in percentage for the specified period of time.

The period of time can be customized by using the date-range picker at the top right of the web page.

