

Website Availability Report

This report is available by clicking on Websites > Reports tile, then click on Availability in the left menu.

The Website Availability Report displays the uptime in percentage for the specified website and period of time.

The data can be filtered by website name and date range.